Job

Job Description

Chief Editor

The job of the chief editor is to collect all of the stories from your different journalists and decide which of the stories will feature as the headline story. You will need to manage your journalists by giving them deadlines and clear instructions.

Designer

As the designer, you will need to be highly skilled at using Canva. You will also need to work closely with the chief editor to decide how they want the newspaper to look. You will need to use the articles and pictures to make the newspaper look beautiful and design the newspaper logo!

Community News

Your job will be to investigate local community news stories that will capture the hearts of the community whilst giving them vital information about what's happening in the school community. You may also want to include an interview and a photo.

Sport

Your job will be to tell the world about your school's sports teams! Include details about other schools played, key players during each game, wins and losses for each sport, and major competitions! Don't forget to include photos from each game or event.

In school

As the journalist for school news, your job will be to tell the community about what has been happening in your school. Are there any special events coming up? Has a student been awarded something for their hard work? Find the scoop!

Opinion/Interview

As the opinion/interview journalist, your job is to find someone interesting to hold an interview with. Maybe it is a local businessperson who is doing something amazing, or a parent who has decided to sail around the world. Interview them and write a story about it. Take a photo too!
